OLD CITIZEN PASSES.

Mrs. Mary Ann Batot (nee Turner) died at the home of her son, Henry Batot, Sr., a few miles southwest of Hondo, Saturday afternoon, November 5, 1932, after some two or three weeks' suffering from a stroke of paralysis. She was laid to rest Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Inglish cemetery by the side of her husband, John Batot, after a requiem mass in St. John's Catholic church, her pastor, Rev. Father T. A.
Flynn, conducting the sad but impressive funeral rites. The body was escorted by six of her grandsons as pallbearers. They were: Hugo Batot, Oscar Batot, Arnold Batot, Henry Batot, Jr., Lester Batot and Raymond Batot. A very large cortege of sorrowing relatives and friends, some coming from distant points, followed the remains to their last resting place.

Mrs. Mary Ann Batot, (nee Turner) was born in D'Hanis, August 4, 1851, being the eldest child of Mrs. Elizabeth Turner and husband.
Her mother was a Rudinger and came to D'Hanis with her parents and other pioneer families while only a young girl. Mrs. Batot grew up in D'Hanis and Medina County has always been her home. She was married January 19, 1870, to John Batot, another scion of a pioneer D'Hanis family. Of their union five sons were born. They were Henry, Leo and Felix of Hondo, Gustave of San Antonio, and all now living, and Emil Batot who died in San Antonio July 22, 1927. Eighteen grandchildren and seven great grandchildren survive her. She is also survived by one brother, Joe Turner, of Sabinal and one sister, Mrs. Ferd. Nester of D'Hanis. Her husband preceded her in death some twenty-seven years ago, having departed this life March 20, 1905.

Another Christian mother, after a long life of devotion to those she loved, her laid her burdens down and sustained and soothed by the faith her religion taught her, has gone to claim that reward vouchsafed unto those who are faithful unto the end.

To those who miss a dear mother gone and grieve at the suddenness of ties that have bound them together in love for so long, the sympathy of all goes out in unstinted measure.

BAPTIST W. M. S.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Baptist church held a social and missionary meeting on Thursday ment of the church next Thursday, and present it to the Orphans Home.

A social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served to fifteen guests and members.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Missionary Society of the Methodist church held its regular business meeting at the church Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Miss Bertha Newton, president, presided.

The most important business of the meeting was the election of officers for the new year which begins the first of January. The following officers were re-elected: President, Miss Bertha Newton; Vice President, Miss Lora King; Treasurer, Mrs. J.
A. Horger; local Treasurer, Mrs. J.
A. Horger; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. T. C. Barnes; Secretary, Mrs. P. E. Lancaster; Supt. Study, Mrs. D. H. Fly; Supt. Supplies, Mrs.
L. Wilson; Supt. Social Relations,

Besides having the business meeting the Week of Prayer was observed Monday afternoon and this service was continued through Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. J. G. Newton was ternoon. Mrs. J. G. Newton was a leader for Monday and Mrs. J. A.
Horger was leader Tuesday afternoon.

These meetings were both well attended and there was a good love of feeling.

TO THE VOTERS OF MEDINA COUNTY.

I wish to hereby express my heartfelt thanks to the voters of this county who so loyally stood by me and supported me in the recent election.
This vote of friendship and of confidence will ever be remembered by me with a feeling of deep gratitude and appreciation.

The election is now past and I want every citizen of this county to know that I will at all times stand ready and anxious to continue to render impartial, efficient and courteous service.

S. A. JUNGMAN.

THE ELECTION.

Tuesday's election was a red-letter day for Democracy in the State and Nation and if the Democrats had carried much more there would have been little left to the opposition. It was a landslide for Roosevelt and Garner nationally and just as "satisfying" for Mrs. Ferguson in Texas.
Elsewhere we tabulate the total vote cast by precincts in Medina County, the presidential and gubernatorial votes. Further tabulations are postponed until a later date for lack of time.

In county and local contested races County Clerk, E. A. Jungman, won re-election with a vote of 1998 to 1484 for his opponent, Herbert Decker.

Fritz Muennink rolled up a total of 1635 votes for re-election as Tax Collector to 294 for Oscar L. Sathoff and 1097 for P. C. Jagge, his opponents.

L. E. Heath polled 1872 votes for re-election as Tax Assessor to 1340 for Frank M. Finger.

Robert J. Brucks defeated Emil Garteiser, present incumbent, for Public Weigher.

H. F. Buss was re-elected Commissioner over his four opponents, Alf.
G. Brucks, V. P. King, John H.
Wierners and Henry Leinweber, Mr.
King being his nearest runner-up.

MEDINA COUNTY COUNCIL.

The Medina County Council met at Yancey Saturday, Nov. 5th, with a splendid representation of the P. T.
A's of the county present. The Yan-cey community is a unit in school activities and gives full support to any educational program staged in their school. The auditorium was filled almost to capacity, and the program as outlined was rendered in its entirety.

After the song, "America" by the audience and the invocation by Rev.
Dechert, a cordial welcome was extended by Supt. Stendebach. A song by the primary grades was much enjoyed by the visitors, and the dialogue, "The Old Teacher," called to memory the happy school days of yore when much of the teaching was done by the rule of the hickory stick.
The Girls' Choral Club rendered two numbers. The musical department of the school is under the supervision of Miss Horger who has had special training in this work, and we predict for Yancey a harmonious school with a melodious atmosphere for this term.

The first speaker was Supt. Knox of the San Antonio schools. He is an experienced teacher and has made child psychology his hobby. He averts that teaching is a huge undertaking, and requires the co-operation of every parent in order to make the school a success. Another great factor in education is to have the full confidence of the child. The child needs a leader in this new realm of educational experiences.

Supt. McGuffin of Pearsall spoke on the modern trend of education. He believes in making the curriculum fit the needs of the child, rather than the old theories of making every child respond to a set program as outlined by the pedagogues of the school of bygone days. Every child should have the advantages of a good high school education with courses in vocational training, thus fitting the child for greater service in life, and kindling in him the ambition to be independent and self-supporting when some day he shall establish his own home.

THURSDAY BRIDGE CLUB.

The members of the Thursday Bridge Club were complimented last Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. R. J.
Neuman as hostess. The affair was of informal nature, the Club members gathering together for a delightful bridge in the fern and flower adorned sunporch.

Attractive prizes were presented Mrs. O. H. Miller, high, Mrs. J. M.
Finger, low, and Mrs. Nora Bendele, guest.

The hostess served a savory luncheon course of fried oysters bedded in lettuce, saltines, apple pie with whipped cream, and coffee.

Those present were Mesdames Charles Finger, Nora Bendele, Earl Starnes, W. H. Smith, O. B. Taylor, H. J. Meyer, J. M. Finger, Horace Bradley, L. E. Heath, L. J. Brucks, T. B. Knopp, O. H. Miller, and the hostess, Mrs. Neuman.

HIS FIRST GOOD CROW IN A LONG TIME.

H. V. Haass was re-elected Justice of the Peace for Precinct 1 with a vote of 656 to 234 for A. W. Hornung.

A tabulation of these votes by precincts will be published later in this paper.

Commissioners Roberson of Devine and Rihn of Castroville were successful over their opponents and Tondre of D'Hanis came back without opposition.

Medina County gave majorities against all the amendments, but they seem to have carried over the state.

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.

"Longfellow could take a worthless sheet of paper, write a poem upon it, and make it worth six thousand dollars. That is genius. Rocketer can sign his name to a piece of paper and make it worth millions.
That is capital.

Uncle Sam can take an ounce of gold, stamp an eagle on it and make it worth $20. That is money.

A mechanic can take material worth $5 and make an article worth $50. That is skill.

An artist can take a fifty-cent piece of canvas, paint a picture on it, and make it worth $1,000. That is art.

God can take a worthless, sinful life, wash it in the blood of Christ, put His Spirit into it, and make it a blessing to humanity and a joy of the Lord. That is Salvation."

The series of lectures on "Christian Fundamentals" on Tuesday nights will continue. All friends are invited to attend. We are to grow in knowledge. Come and be informed. You make it a point to be informed about political affairs.
Should you think less of spiritual affairs? Your time will not be wasted. We begin at 7:30.

Our service next Sunday will be held in the German language at 10:30. The Sunday school and Bible Classes will meet at 9:15. Beginning with Sunday, November 20, our Sunday School hour will begin at 9:00 o'clock in order to have time for work on our Christmas program.
Please make a note of this.

Next Sunday night the local pastor will assist in the annual mission festival to be held at Castroville.
Those who wish to attend are invited to do so.

Pastor.

DR. AND MRS. SMITH HOSTS.

A large personnel, including the Thursday Bridge Club and additional guests, enjoyed an evening of bridge with Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith Wednesday night. Yellow chrysanthemums and Dusty Miller gave the floral touches to the home.

Guests to receive bridge awards were Mrs. H. J. Meyer and Mr. J. G.
Barry. Members likewise favored were Mrs. L. J. Brucks and Dr. T. B.
Knopp.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs.
L. E. Heath, Judge and Mrs. L. J.
Brucks, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Bradley, Dr. and Mrs. O. B. Taylor, Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Knopp, Dr. and Mrs.
H. J. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Barry, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Rothe, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Starnes, Mrs. O. H.
Miller, and Dr. and Mrs. Smith.

AN APPRECIATION.

I take this method of sincerely thanking my friends in Medina County for their unselfish support in my recent campaign. Though defeated, I am glad I made the race.

Toward those who did not see fit to support me, I bear no ill will.

Respectfully,
HERBERT DECKER.

RECEIVES PURPLE HEART MEDAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Haass and little son of Black Creek community were pleasant callers at this office Thursday evening of last week. Mr.
Haass, who is a veteran of the World War, was exhibiting a Purple Heart Medal of which he is very proud and which is probably the first of its kind to come to a Medina County boy. It was awarded to him by the Federal Government in recognition of wounds received in action on a battlefield in France and is awarded only to wounded veterans. Mr. Haass, who was a Corporal in Company C, 141st Infantry, 36th Division, was wounded in the right side and thigh by shrapnel on October 9, 1918, while fighting on the Meuse-Argonne Sector in France.

He is a member of Sam Houston Post No. 76, Veterans of Foreign Wars of San Antonio. He also has been awarded a Foreign Service Medal, a Victory Button and a Silver Star Wound Button, but is prouder of the Purple Heart than of any of the others.

Mr. Haass, who is a son of Mr.
Phillip Haass, was a member of the volunteer company which was recruited here and at Uvalde at the outbreak of the World War and has many "buddies" in this section who rejoice with him in this recognition of a grateful government for the blood spilled in his country's service.

METHODIST STEWARDS ENTER- TAINED.

On last Wednesday evening, Rev. and Mrs. P. E. Lancaster entertained the Stewards of their church and their wives with a most delightful party.

Soon after the arrival of all the guests the men were invited into another room and Mrs. Lancaster asked each lady to remove one of her slippers and put it in a basket. The basket was then passed to the men to choose the one they liked and find the owner. Partners were chosen in this amusing way.

A number of very interesting and laughable contests were then given which were enjoyed by all until a late hour, after which Mrs. Lancaster, assisted by several of the ladies, served a delicious salad course consisting of chicken salad, lettuce olives, wafers and cookies with hot chocolate and whipped cream.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. J.
R. Chancey, Mr. and Mrs. S. O.
Woolls, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Fly, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Newton, Mr. and Mrs.
A. H. Schweers, Mr. and Mrs. H.
Bulgerin, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Koll-man, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Horger, Rev.
J. W. Long and Miss Willie Fly.

TRADES DAY RESULTS.

Cash premiums ranging from $10 to $250 were awarded holders of the lucky numbers Wednesday afternoon, November 9th, at Hondo's monthly Trades Day drawing. Winners were as follows: Miss Minnie Wierners, Jim Miller, F. Gilley, Mrs.
Jim Hall, T. H. Caffal, J. G. Britsch, Mrs. R. Sathoff, Mrs. L. E. Koll-man, Sr., and Thomas Taylor.

The attendance was not as large as usual, perhaps due to the after-effects of election the preceding day, and several numbers called failed to bring a response from the audience. The merchants of Hondo offer these premiums monthly as proof of their appreciation of your trade, and if you wish to partake of the good will of these business men, be on hand with your tickets at each monthly Trades Day drawing.

Next time may be your lucky day.
Hondo's merchants will again offer you a chance at some valuable cash awards next month, December 14th.

METHODIST POUNDING.

A large number of the members of the Methodist church gathered at the parsonage last Tuesday night to welcome their pastor and family back to the church for another year.

Each member attending carried an offering besides large boxes and bundles sent by those who could not attend, and an old-fashioned Methodist pounding was laid upon and around the dining table. After several hours spent in merriment and songs, delicious refreshments consisting of sandwiches, cakes and punch were served by the ladies and Mrs. Lancaster.

The pastor, with his heart overflowing with love and gratitude, thanked his members in his usual gracious manner. This was responded to by a few spicy words of welcome by Mrs. J. G. Newton.

The guests departed at an early hour for their homes after a most enjoyable evening with their "new" pastor and his family.

TO THE VOTERS OF PRECINCT 1.

me as your Justice of the Peace for another term and assure you that it shall be my endeavor to discharge the duties you have entrusted to me to the best of my ability and in the utmost impartiality and justice to all.
Again thanking you, I am,

Yours to serve,
H. V. HAASS.

"BACK STREET" A GREAT LOVE STORY.

Don't miss the Colonial's next picture! In "Back Street", which opens Friday at this theatre, we present what we believe is one of the greatest motion pictures produced during the current season. It has been in preparation for an entire year.

The screen play is an adaptation of Fannie Hurst's most popular novel, and its cast of players is headed by Irene Dunne and John Boles, two of the screen's best-liked artists. Important supporting roles are played by June Clyde, William Bakewell, Arletta Duncan, Doris Lloyd, George Meeker, Walter Catlett and many other film favorites, and the picture was directed by John M. Stahl, director of "Strictly Dishonorable", "Se d", and other domestic dramas.

"Back Street" tells an intensely affecting story of a woman who gave up everything in her life for love, and a man who gave nothing but love, and the picture sheds new light on the "eternal triangle", and you will follow the unfolding of the plot with breathless interest.

"Back Street" is Fannie Hurst's greatest novel. It first appeared in Cosmopolitan Magazine as a serial and was followed in 1931 by a most successful novel. The race to buy it was keen and after you have seen the picture, you will realize why. It is a great love story.

Next week—"Guilty as Hell", an unusual mystery comedy with Edmund Lowe, Victor McLaglen, Richard Arlen and Adrienne Ames.

Percy Clark, an oil promoter from San Antonio, was here Wednesday talking up a leasing proposition. His plan, as we understand it, is to pool a large area of land north of the Highway and between the Hondo-Bandera road on the west and the Medina River on the east and place the leases in escrow in some bank and when the terms are complied with they are to be turned over to the lessee who will drill a test well some where in the area pooled. He had a meeting called for Wednesday night at the Sturm Hill school house to further explain his plan to interested land-owners.

DEVINE MERCHANTS OUS SAN ANTONIO TRUCKS.

Devine merchants refuse to buy bread, soda water, and vegetables from San Antonio trucks. In doing so they are following the example of Del Rio, Cotulla, Pearsall, Sausal, and other cities.

These merchants have realized that by sending the money out of town they are hurting themselves as much as the home town farmer, baker, or soda manufacturer.

They have also realized they were knocking the foundation from their own business.

Anyone with common sense must admit that the dollar must stay at home to do business with.

When a dollar is sent to San Antonio it is dead for your town.

Any merchant who has the San Antonio sign on the sidewalk or his door is teaching the people to buy away from home.

and Mrs. Henry F. Franger from Macon attended the wedding of Miss Gladys Handley and Jack Cook sey at Harlandale Baptist Church in San Antonio Tuesday evening. Miss Handley will be remembered by many of our readers, having taught at Delta School several years.

hart and friend, Clinton Lemberg, of San Antonio were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tschirhart at the Sauz

Dr. J. W. Jones, who has practiced medicine here for the past five years, doctors have been here the first of the week looking over little city over with the intention of locating.

DEVINE NEWSLETS

From The Devine News.

HIGHWAY 173 TO CONNECT WITH NO. 97 AT PLEASANTON.

News reached Devine early Friday that the Highway Commission had extended Highway No. 173 from Devine to connect with No. 97 at Pleasanton, near Jourdanon, giving us an east and west highway, connecting us with the Gulf, as well as with points west at Hondo. According to Commissioner Martin, this important connecting link will be wider and of much better construction than Meridian No. 2, north and south; and our people feel that it will mean much more to Devine, bringing through travel from the northwest and southwest, penetrating Devine's trade territory. It will mean several hundred thousand dollars expended on both sides of us, in Medina, Frio (short) and Atascosa. It will no doubt enhance values along the paved highway to more than offset any damages it might be in crossing lands, now lacking highway connections. A paved highway will put any farm touched 50 per cent nearer town patronized as a market for such farm. Farmers should hail with gladness such highway connection to say nothing of the money it may turn loose in their county and neighborhood, furnishing work for hundreds and ready markets for their farm products while the work is going on.

Two or three Devine men, who originated this idea and worked early and late for it, while others knocked and discouraged, are due most of the credit for securing this designation, and orders to survey the proposed route. Engineers and surveyors are expected to begin work soon.

BROOMCORN BUYERS RECOM-MEND BLACK SPANISH
VARIETY.

J. C. Redus, who buys broomcorn for a New Orleans Broom Co., hands us a clipping from a letter from the Company, recommending the "Black Spanish Variety" for the Devine section, to compete with Oklahoma growers, as our broomcorn reaches the markets ahead of the northern straw. Mr. Redus says about twenty cars have been shipped from Devine, mostly taken to ships at Houston; and a great deal has been trucked out.
He says the buyers, who suggest the change in variety, are not interested in selling seed; but Mr. Redus himself will investigate further, probably get someone here to handle the Black Spanish, and if so, will have it advertised before time for spring planting. Redus will leave next week for the West to buy for his company; the crop is mostly sold here.

How One Woman
Lost 10 Lbs. in a Week

Mrs. Betty Luedeke of Dayton writes: "I am using Kruschen to reduce weight—I lost 10 pounds in one week and cannot say too much to recommend it."

To take off fat easily, SAFELY and HARMLESSLY—take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast, go lighter on fatty meats, potatoes, butter, cream and pastries —it is the safe way to lose unsightly fat and one bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle. Get it at W. H. Windrow's or any drugstore in America.
Mail orders filled. If this first bottle fails to convince you this is the safest way to lose fat—money back.
But be sure and get Kruschen Salts —imitations are numerous and you must safeguard your health.

Work Weary
"NERVES"

Do they make you Restless, Cranky, Tired, Sleepless, Dyspeptic, Headachy? Do they spoil your pleasure and interfere with your work?

Tens of thousands have found a way to get relief from overworked nerves—a way so simple, so pleasant, so low in cost, that we are constantly receiving letters that say, "If I had only found Effervescent Nerve Tablets sooner." Simon Brandt writes:

"I was very nervous from over-work. I couldn't sleep well, appetite was poor, and I felt weak for a long time."
"Used Dr. Miles' Nerveine and now feel fifteen years younger and I am working the same as I did before—fourteen to fifteen hours daily."

"Sorry I did not learn about this wonderful medicine sooner as I had tried everything I could hear of, without results, until Dr. Miles' Nerveine put me back on my feet."

When you are nervous, try this—put a Dr. Miles' Effervescent Nerveine Tablet into a glass of water. Watch it bubble up like sparkling spring water—drink it—enjoy the feeling of calm and relaxation that follows.

In Dr. Miles' Effervescent Nerveine Tablets a splendid formula for soothing overworked nerves is combined with bicarbonate of soda and citric acid which tend to correct hyper-acidity—a frequent cause of nervousness.

CHRISTIAN FUNDAMENTALS OR THE WAY MADE PLAIN.

Lecture 2.

"If ye continue in My Word then are ye My disciples indeed; and ye shall know the Truth and the Truth shall make you free." John 8, 31-32.

In our first lecture, we tried to make plain on basis of Holy Scriptures, that God, who revealed Himself in nature and in men's hearts, revealed Himself most clearly and unmistakably in the Word of God. The Bible is this Word of God. Proofs are sufficient. In the Light of this Word we learn to know man and his relation to God, and we learn to know God and His relation to man. The Law of God is an important part of Truth or the Word of God. We shall therefore consider for our second lecture "God's Law and Sinful Man".

A. God's Law. What is God's Law? We find this Law written in Exodus 20, 1-19. It begins thus: "And God spake all these words, saying, I am the Lord Thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. Thou shalt have no other gods before Me." We learn at once who is speaking to us. He has a serious message. It is His will for men, to make them happy and secure. The first duty is absolute obedience to God Almighty and Merciful. No human being on the face of the globe for the last centuries since creation has been happy if he has neglected this fundamental Law of our Creator and Father. He demands our hearts first of all, "Son, give me thine heart." He expects love, love, and trust more than we fear, love or trust anything else. Having our heart, in the second commandment He wants our tongue also, and if we properly fear and love Him we will dedicate that to Him in prayer, praise and thanksgiving. In fact we will set aside one day out of seven to honor Him, gladly hearing His Word and keeping it. Thus we have the first division of the Law, which indicates clearly what our relation to God should be. The second part of the Decalogue or Ten Commandments would show us our duty to our neighbor.

The world's standard seems to be: If I am as good as my neighbor or even somewhat better, I am good enough. The first part of the Law says nothing about the neighbor. And the second part leaves us no room to make our neighbor our standard of morality. God's Law the standard also for our relation to other men. Those nearest to us, our parents and those who have the rule over us in home and school and government and church, are to be respected and obeyed. With regard to human life God places a "No trespassing" sign on everyone, which means hands off. The life is a sacred thing and God hates murder and every kindred sin. "Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer" says our Savior in interpreting the fifth commandment. In view of the modern careless attitude toward the sacred institution of marriage and morality the thunder of Sinai should reverberate with shattering effect upon the consciences of all who hear: "Thou shalt not commit adultery." Hands off of the divinely sanctioned union of the sexes. The thief, the liar, the covetous person is condemned by the Law of God.

Jesus put this Law in simple form: the Law of Love, to God and our neighbor. Mark 12, 29-31. Why did God give it? As a rule, to guide us in life, that we might go in the straight path, looking neither to the right hand nor to the left. It is also to serve as a curb. The spectre of the gallows, the vision of the cold prison bars, and a life haunted by guards acts as a curb on crime to some extent. Thus the Law of God also. The third use of the Law is that of a mirror, which shows men their wrong and transgressions of the Law.

What does the Law require of us? It requires absolute obedience. "Thou shalt" And God means it. It is also just and fair. Everyone must admit the fairness of every command even if he does not submit to them. "Wherefore the Law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good." Rom. 7, 12. This just and holy Law by a just and Holy God condemns every transgressor. It brings a curse upon all. For as many as are of the works of the Law are under the curse; for it is written, Cursed is everyone that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the Law to do them." Gal. 3, 10. Christ came to be under its curse. The punishment can be seen in His sufferings. By breaking the commandments man puts himself under the wrath of God and is guilty before the bar of God's judgment hall. The law sometimes brings its own punishment, for "whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap." Generations have felt the hand of Holy Justice on their lives and again thousands of generations have been shown mercy because they feared the Lord.

B. Sinful Man. The first Law was not the Decalogue, but the Law given in Eden. It was written in man's heart: "which show the work of the Law written in their hearts." Rom. 2, 15. Even heathen, therefore, have still a faint knowledge of God's will. The Hindu mother casts her infant into the Ganges to appease an angry god, etc. It was natural for the first man, however, to know and to do God's will completely. He was in perfect harmony with God. The Law read: "On the day thou eatest thereof, thou shalt surely die." Gen. 2, 17. Temptation came from without. Man did forget God for the time, was led to doubt, then to disbelief, then, instead of deciding wholly for God, decided in favor of sin. It was the Fall with its fatal results: banishment from God's presence—and a state of spiritual and physical decay or corruption set in. The reason became untrustworthy. "The natural man receiveth not the things of God, neither can he know them, for they are spiritually discerned." 1 Cor. 2, 14. The will became corrupted and hostile: "The carnal mind is enmity against God." Rom. 8, 7. It became natural for man to do wrong, and this tendency to evil was passed down through the human race. "Behold I was shapen in iniquity and in sin did my mother conceive me." Ps.

51:5. "We were by nature the children of wrath." Epa. 2:3, and "By one man's disobedience many were made sinners." Rom. 5:19. "That which is born of the flesh is flesh." Jn. 3:6. By observation we can tell that a child does not have to be taught to be selfish and to be jealous, to be willful, etc, but it does have to be taught how to pray and how to be unselfish and other Christian character traits.

As a result of this corruption of the human race, all men have become sinners. "There is no difference, for we have all sinned and come short of the glory of God." Rom. 3, 22-23. "We all like sheep have gone astray, we turned everyone to His own way." And these transgressions certainly "separate between you and your God". Isa. 59:2. Other passages could be cited in proof of this fact that man is a sinful being. He has "kicked the traces" against God's Law. And the wages of this sin is death. Rom. 6, 23. If we deny the fact of sin in man, then we are not true to God or ourselves. Read 1 John 1, 8-10. By thought and word and deed man sins daily. These are not pleasant thoughts. But they are Truth from Scripture. If we continue in the Truth of Scripture, we shall know the Truth and the Truth shall make us free. Even his knowledge of the Law shall make us free. How are we to become free from this Law and from transgression and from the guilt and punishment which follow? By keeping the Law! It were well if we could. But "by the Law is the knowledge of sin." By even trying to keep this Law in order to become right in the sight of God we will not get any farther than to know our sinfulness. We cannot justify ourselves by the Law. It condemns us. "But that no man is justified by the Law in the sight of God is evident." Gal. 3, 11. We must look elsewhere in this volume of Eternal Truth for the answer. We hope to do so. But we have taken an important step on the way of salvation, by considering "God's Law and Sinful Man".

WALTER C. LEIBFARTH.

The alfalfa "die-hards" in Goliad county are finally giving in that alfalfa can be grown in a practical way. Recent inquiries indicate that probably a dozen new meadows will be started this fall after farmers have seen how alfalfa planted last spring thrived in spite of a most unfavorable season for the crop. One man intends putting in at least 25 acres and others will plant from one to five acres. J. M. Hensley cut his alfalfa two times in spite of unremembered dry weather and calculates that he got at least a ton per acre for the two cuttings. His barn is full of nice pea-green baled alfalfa hay and he is so proud of it that he hates to feed it to anything. Mr. Hensley also states that his Korean lespedeza is doing more than he expected during the dry weather, that very little of it died out, and that he has a good stand remaining.

George Dick, a first year student of vocational agriculture in Bama, completed the digging, walling up, covering, arranging of stairs, hanging doors, etc., to an underground cellar for his mother to store her canned vegetables, jellies, jams, preserves, and meats during the coming year.
